NOTICE TO DEFENDANT (LANDLORD)

1. You are being sued.
2. The complaint attached to these papers states the claim that each Plaintiff (Tenant) is making against you in this lawsuit.
3. To respond to this, wait for a notice of hearing to be mailed to you, and then you must appear for the hearing at the Address of Court, on the date and at the time listed on that notice. You or your attorney should also file an Appearance on or before that time.
4. If you do not appear for your hearing, orders may be entered against you by default.
5. All parties should be present with any witnesses or evidence they intend to offer.
6. Your tenant will now be paying the rent into court.
7. You may NOT commence a Summary Process (Eviction) Action for nonpayment of rent while this case is pending, so long as the tenant continues to deposit the rent with the court.
